Duff And Fine Are Winners In Election In Pennsylvania

Philadelphia Loss Overcome In Rest Of State

Entire Republican Ticket Is Elected By Voters Tuesday

By FRANK J. BURKE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Brusque, acid-tongued Gov. James H. Duff captured a U. S. Senate seat today as he led his "new guard" Republican organization to a convincing triumph in Pennsylvania's record-flirting off-year election voting.

The fiery Duff swept into Senate by unseating incumbent Democrat Francis J. Myers, Senate whip and top-ranking national party leader. And Duff carried into office with him his hand-picked successor as governor, former Superior Court Judge John S. Fine, of Nanticoke, Pa.

Nearly Complete Returns
Nearly complete returns from the state's 8,349 precincts gave Duff a healthy margin of approximately 129,000 votes over Myers.

Fine led Dilworth by more than 80,000 ballots.

The latest totals showed:
Duff 1,800,889; Myers 1,671,773.
Fine 1,772,260; Dilworth 1,692,848.

Duff's expected victory in his bid for Myers' post vaulted him into the forefront of 1952 GOP presidential prospect.

Overcome Philadelphia Vote
In one of the toughest statewide election battles in years, the Duff-Fine GOP slate overcame a tremendous 76,000-vote deficit in Philadelphia to roll to victory.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. James E. Boyd of Mitchell road, Shenango township, shot a pheasant in the back yard of her residence that had been flushed by their dog.

Harlansburg road should be opened to traffic in a short while if present favorable working conditions continue. Paving of the final section from the top of the Harlansburg hill on the road leading from New Castle into Harlansburg has been completed. Work on berms and other work in that section continues. The road was originally scheduled to open on November 10.

With the exception of a few fields where corn is still standing, the erection of snow fences in Lawrence county for 1950 has been completed by highway workmen. The remainder will be put in position when the corn shocks are removed. Annually, around 21 miles of fence are erected in this county.

Tuesday was report day in most of the schools about the city. The new reports which are being issued by the schools are almost the size of a diploma compared to the pocket size reports issued a few years back. One consolation to the parents is, in the new reports, that they can't be hidden by youngsters who perhaps had some failing marks.

Due to the quick work of return boards counting the ballots cast in Tuesday's elections, local residents who watch with interest election returns, were permitted to retire a bit earlier this morning. Straight (Continued on Page Two)

ELECTION RESULT PLEASES THEM

Ann and Robert White, of 422 Sumner avenue, have just heard the good news as they listen to election returns by radio at home. Mr. White, local attorney and major in the United States Marines, was elected to General Assembly from the first district.

Guy Everybody Knows As 'Impy' Wins In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The boss man of the biggest city in the United States, capital of the United Nations, financial center of the world, today and for the next three years, is a guy everybody knows as "Impy".
By the hundreds of thousands, New York voters knocked the "acting" off the title of dapper, Italian-born Vincent R. Impellitteri, and named him mayor in a popular uprising against Tammany Hall. His plurality was 303,291.
Impy, given the brush by the Democratic machine, swept to victory in an anti-gambling reform wave he spearheaded by naming Thomas F. Murphy, the successful prosecutor of Alger Hiss, as police commissioner.

Without A Party
He literally came in as a man without a party—at least, he was the only candidate of the Experimental Party.

Congressman Graham Wins Seventh Term

Congressman Louis E. Graham won one of the most decisive victories of his congressional career in the balloting on Tuesday. He was re-elected for his seventh term in Congress, defeating State Senator Samuel G. Neff by a vote of 55,730 to 50,626 in the three counties comprising the 25th district, Lawrence, Beaver, and Butler.

Leads Here
In Lawrence County Congressman Graham polled 17,374 votes to 15,032 for Senator Neff in the 100 precincts.

In Beaver County he polled 22,548 votes to 25,623 for Senator Neff, in the 114 precincts.

In Butler County he polled 15,808 votes to 9,971 for Senator Neff.

This was Senator Neff's third attempt to unseat Congressman Graham and for a time it was thought he might do it. He had the backing of the CIO-PAC and (Continued on Page Two)

Democrats Lose Seats In Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Figures tell the story of greatly lessened administration control over the new 82nd congress. The senate will line up this way: Democrats, 49; Republicans, 47. In the 81st congress, which goes out of existence Dec. 31, the line-up is:
Democrats, 54; Republicans, 42. The house set-up in the 81st congress is:
Democrats, 259; Republicans, 169; American Labor party (Rep. Marston, N. Y.), 1; vacancies, 6. Latest returns show 233 Democrats, 194 Republicans with seats won in the 82nd congress.

Lawrence County Is Carried By Republicans

Duff And Fine And State Ticket Lead In County

Lawrence county stayed in the Republican column in Tuesday's election and returned every candidate on the ticket a winner.

The majorities ranged from 5095 for Judge Blair F. Gunther down to 2017 for Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood. Some splitting was apparent but on the whole the party vote was fairly straight.

Duff Winner
Governor James H. Duff, running for United States senator, polled 17,615 votes to 14,710 for Senator Francis J. Myers, the Democratic incumbent. As in the other fights the bulk of the majority was achieved in the county districts outside the city.

Judge John S. Fine carried the county for governor, polling 17,695 votes to 14,452 for Richardson Dilworth.

Lloyd H. Wood carried the county for lieutenant-governor, polling 17,063 votes to 15,046 for Judge Michael A. Musmanno.

For state supreme court judge John C. Bell carried the county by a vote of 18,125 to 13,904 for Judge Michael J. Eagen.

For judge of the superior court, Judge Blair F. Gunther led the Republican ticket with 18,894 votes to 13,599 for Judge Ray I. Carson. (Continued on Page Two)

White Winner For Legislature, Also McCullough

Lawrence County will send two Republicans to the Pennsylvania General Assembly in the session of 1951.

In New Castle, the first district, Attorney Robert M. White, II, defeated his Democratic opponent, James A. Travels by a vote of 8,246 to 7,786.

In the second district, the county outside of New Castle, Representative William H. McCullough was re-elected for his third term, defeating his Democratic opponent, Frank Clark, by a vote of 9,366 to 6,900.

First Try
For Attorney White it was his first venture into the field of politics. He is associated with his father, City Solicitor Robert M. White, in the practice of law and is a veteran of World War II. He served as a major in the United States Marine Corps seeing action in the battle of Midway and that on Guadalcanal.

Wreckage Of Plane Found

Fear 22 Aboard Died In Crash

(BULLETIN)
BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 8.—(INS)—The wreckage of a twin-engine Northwest Airlines plane carrying 22 persons including two children, was found today in mountainous country about three miles east of the Butte airport.

A helicopter pilot who circled over the airliner said he noted no sign of life and that the plane apparently had burned.

The wreckage was in Modesto Canyon, in the main Rocky mountain range which circles Butte.

The Martin 202 was sighted by George Stanich of Butte, a civil air patrol member flying a private patrol plane.

Kelly Seems Winner In Michigan Race

(BULLETIN)
DETROIT, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Republican candidate Harry F. Kelly was the apparent winner in Michigan's tight gubernatorial race today, holding a lead of 5,500 votes over Democratic Governor G. Mennen Williams.

Only 130 of the state's 4,361 precincts are still to be counted and these, according to election officials, are scattered outstate where Kelly gathered most of his lead.

Senator Taft Wins Re-Election By Large Vote

Governor Lausche Is Also Re-Elected By Voters In Ohio

By HAROLD LISK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—Sen. Robert A. Taft, Ohio's "Mr. Republican," won a smashing re-election victory today over a candidate backed by organized labor.

Indications are that Taft's margin over Joseph T. Ferguson will be around 300,000 votes, a personal landslide that is certain to put Taft in contention for the 1952 GOP presidential nomination. Taft had a 344,311-vote lead on returns from 8,818 of the state's 10,386 polling places. The count gave Taft 1,351,898 votes to his opponent's 1,007,587.

"Handed Me Surprise"
Ferguson, who had the vociferous backing of the nation's labor leaders, conceded Taft's election to a third term at 2 a. m. with these words:

"Congratulations on your victory. You not only handed me a licking but also gave me the surprise of my life."

Taft himself claimed victory before midnight and asserted that Ohio's vote was "a declaration of disapproval of President Truman's Socialist program." He said the results are "favorable for a GOP presidential candidate in 1952."

However, the son of the late President William Howard Taft declared it is "too soon" to discuss the '52 campaign.

Ohioans used an office-type ballot in Tuesday's election for the first time. It prevented the voting of a straight ticket with a single "X," a factor which allowed Taft to pull more votes than any other candidate running for office.

Gov. Warren Is Re-Elected By Huge Majority

Wins Decisively Over James Roosevelt; Nixon New Senator

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Gov. Earl Warren of California swept to top ranking as a Republican presidential possibility today by winning an unprecedented third term with a tremendous majority over Democrat James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

By a margin almost as astounding, Republican Congressman Richard Nixon, hard-hitting foe of Communism and a key figure in the case against Alger Hiss, defeated Helen Gahagan Douglas (D) for a seat in the U. S. Senate.

May Have 800,000
Returns from half the state's polling places indicated the silver-haired Warren's vote getting wizardry overcame the magic of the Roosevelt name by a majority of approximately 800,000.

Nixon's indicated margin over Mrs. Douglas was about 400,000 although most pre-election prophets predicted a close contest.

Warren, the 1948 Republican vice presidential candidate, performed the unparalleled feat of carrying all 58 counties. Nixon carried only 53 of the counties.

Returns from 9204 of the state's 18,408 precincts gave:
Warren 801,799; Roosevelt 441,329.
Nixon 637,659; Douglas 439,622.

Thanks, Election Boards

Lawrence county election boards did one of the finest jobs in the history of politics here on Tuesday.

Despite a heavy vote the boards got their count done early, made up their tally sheets and had their returns in the court house. By two o'clock this morning every one of the 100 precincts had been reported and through a collaboration of The News and Station WKST the returns were broadcast.

As usual the first and second precincts of the seventh ward in New Castle engaged in a friendly rivalry to see who would report first. The second precinct reported a partial return at 8:12, just twelve minutes after the polls closed and at 8:26 the first precinct reported.

This was a neck and neck race, because the first precinct had a much larger vote to tally.

The first precinct to report a complete count was the first of the sixth ward, followed closely by the second of the second ward.

There was not one precinct delayed in this election. Some of the precincts located on the outskirts of the county naturally could not report as soon as those in the city but at that the rural precincts were in in mighty good time.

For their excellent work The News says thanks to every election board official in every one of the 100 precincts in the county.

PROBABLY OLDEST TO VOTE HERE TUESDAY

Mrs. Deborah Russell, 729 Chestnut street, was probably the oldest person to vote in Tuesday election here. Mrs. Russell who at 94 years of age, has voted in the third precinct of the third ward every since Woman Suffrage. Mrs. Russell drops her ballot at the polls early in the day.

Three Powerful Senate Leaders Lost To Truman

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN ABOARD THE YACHT WILLIAMSBURG, Nov. 8.—(INS)—President Truman awoke this morning to find Democrats still in control of both Houses of Congress, although their lead has been whittled down.

The administration, however, lost three of its most powerful Senate leaders in the defeat of Majority Leader Lucas, Ill., majority whip Myers, Pa., and armed services chairman Tydings, Md.

The morning report of the election returns was the first received by Mr. Truman, since he went to bed at 9 o'clock Tuesday night.

The president boarded the yacht Williamsburg yesterday for a brief vacation cruise—his only relief from White House duties in sight for the next several months.

Before he left Washington he met at the White House with Defense Secretary Marshall, Secretary of State Acheson and Ambassador to Korea John J. Muccio for a briefing on the grim Korea situation.

Mr. Truman went directly to the (Continued on Page Two)

Senate Majority Leader Is Upset

Senator Lucas Is Defeated Tuesday

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Everett McKinley Dirksen, an eight-term congressman who campaigned against administration "bungling" in Asia, unseated majority leader Scott Lucas today in the off-year election's biggest upset.

Dirksen, a Pekin, Ill., lawyer, carried the state by an indicated majority of more than 200,000 votes and had a chance to sweep the Republican slate into office with him.

It was a great comeback for the ex-congressman who was defeated in the Democratic sweep of 1948.

Lucas, a bulwark of the Truman administration, was in danger of losing Cook county, traditional stronghold of the Democrats. (Continued on Page Two)

Democrats Will Hold Slight Lead In New Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Democrats today won narrow control of the new 83rd congress but the Republicans in a smashing display of off-year resurgence elected the GOP's outstanding leaders across the nation.

Latest returns show that the Democrats won the senate by a margin of only 49 to 47.

By 9 a. m. (EST) the Democrats had elected 230 house members, 12 more than they needed for control. The Republican house tally at that hour was 190. Indications were that the Democrats would have a house majority of about 40.

Huge Attack Is Made In Korea Near Border

Reinforcements Are Being Rushed To North Korea Front

By IRVING R. LEVINE
(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

SEOUL, Nov. 9.—(Thursday)—More than 300 U. S. planes, including 79 Superforts, delivered a twin-pronged attack Wednesday on northwest Korea's hub of Sinuiju adjoining Manchuria as both sides rushed reinforcements to the front.

Sinuiju, capital of the fugitive North Korean Red government, was set aflame under the concentrated assault, aimed especially at the city's Yalu river bridge approaches, a few hours after America F-80s vanquished Russian-type Mig-15s in history's first all-jet air battle.

One enemy jet was shot down and a second damaged while the Americans suffered no loss in the screaming 600-mile-per-hour engagement fought 20,000 feet above the earth's surface.

Decisive Struggle Imminent
The Korean war's decisive struggle seems imminent as troops of the U. S. Army's Third Infantry Division landed at the eastern port of Wonsan to bolster United Nations divisions in northeast Korea.

In that sector, one U. S. First Marine Division column pressed three miles closer to the prized Changjin hydroelectric reservoir, but a Marine artillery battalion to the southwest was ringed by Chinese and Korean Red troops.

Enlarge Bridgehead
In northwest Korea, UN forces further enlarged their bridgehead perimeter north of the Chongchon river following a three-mile advance Tuesday by British Commonwealth troops along the west wing.

At the eastern end of the Chongchon ar, South Korean Seventh Division troops pushed north Wednesday to within a mile and a (Continued on Page Seven)

Not Resigning Says Acheson

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Secretary of State Acheson said today that he has no intention "whatever" of resigning from the cabinet as demanded by Harold E. Stassen in the wake of Tuesday's election returns.

Stassen said early this morning that he assumed Acheson will quit as Secretary of State in face of the "repudiation of the administration's foreign policy, particularly in the Far East."

Asked about Stassen's statement at his weekly news conference, Acheson replied:

"I have no such intention whatever."

Stassen, ex-Minnesota governor, interpreted the election results as an indication that the people want Gen. Douglas MacArthur to have a larger say in Far Eastern policy.

New Mexico Elects Republican Governor

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 8.—(INS)—New Mexico appeared early today to have elected its first Republican governor in 18 years as Republican Edward L. Mechen piled up a 10,000 vote lead over Rep. John E. Miles, Democrat.

The vote with 870 of 910 precincts reported was:
Mechen 77,827; Miles 67,663.

Both Democratic candidates for congress—Rep. Antonio M. Fernandez and John J. Dempsey, were elected along with others on the Democratic ticket.

Did the speeches affect your decision or had you made up your mind, did the worker who handed a card at polls make a difference of any kind? Well it's over and now let's forget it, get back to our jobs as before, remembering this, the election is done, and nobody ought to be sore. The folks cast their votes as they wished to, and everyone had his say, so back to the job and get pitching, it's 63 today.

U.S. Asks U.N. Call On China To Withdraw

By PIERRE J. HUSS (U. N. Staff Correspondent)
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 8.—(INS)—The United States asked the United Nations today to call on Communist China to withdraw an estimated 30,000 Red Chinese troops from North Korea.

U. S. Chief Delegate Warren Austin took the floor of the 11-nation security council to assail vigorously Soviet delegate Malik's demand that representatives of Communist China be invited to sessions in which Gen. MacArthur's report on Chinese intervention in Korea are considered.

A few moments after Malik had denounced MacArthur and his reports to the council as "tendentious" and "illegal" and said he was not the recognized commander of U. N. forces, Austin stated:

"We do not know exactly how many Chinese Communist soldiers are actually in Korea but from the evidence available it would appear that they have passed the 30,000 figure and continue to increase."

Austin cited the increasing flow of troops from Manchuria into Korea and the appearance against U. N. forces of the latest type aircraft out of Manchurian skies.

He continued:

"The point of the spear is in Korea but the hands which hold the shaft are in Manchuria. I wish to propose today one specific answer to this problem. The point of the spear must be withdrawn."

Austin concluded with the following declaration:

"This council is the guardian of international peace and security and must require the Chinese Communist regime to withdraw its forces from Korea and to refrain from further unlawful assistance, direct or indirect, to the North Korean aggressor."

LAWRENCE COUNTY IS CARRIED BY REPUBLICANS

For secretary of internal affairs, the incumbent, William S. Livengood, Jr., polled 17,999 votes to 13,600 for Frank W. Ruth.

Heavy Vote

The vote was unusually heavy, running far beyond the predictions of political observers. It was estimated the vote would go no higher than 60 per cent. Actually it ran about 72 per cent of the 45,879 voters registered considering those who have died, those who were unable to vote because of sickness or had removed from the county. In addition there was a scattered vote for the six splinter parties on the ballot.

City Divided

The city of New Castle wavered between the Republican and Democratic parties. Governor Duff carried the city by a slight majority. Judge Bell did a little better. Judge Gunther led the ticket, followed by Secretary of Internal Affairs Livengood. Lieutenant-Governor Wood lost the city to Judge Michael A. Musmanno and State Senator Samuel G. Neff carried the city in his fight for congress against Congressman Louis E. Graham.

From then on until the last three precincts were in it was anybody's battle with Mr. White finally winning by a majority of 480.

In the second district Representative William H. McCullough had no difficulty winning his fight over Mr. Clark. He started out with a rush and kept it up all night. His final majority was 2,486. He is a former school teacher and operates a farm in North Beaver township.

It was also Mr. Clark's first venture into politics. He is the chief of police of Bessemer.

With 8,818 of the State's 10,388 polling places reporting, Lausche had a 137,023-vote lead over Republican nominee Don H. Ebright. The count was: Lausche 1,267,300; Ebright 1,130,277.

The Republicans picked up four Congressional seats held by the Democrats while retaining the 11 they already had. This gives the Ohio Republicans a 15-8 edge in the Lower House of Congress.

MARIANI-CIPRIANO BEAUTIFUL RITE

A white mother of pearl prayer book, encrusted with a white orchid, streamers, and a pearl rosary, was carried by Miss Sue Rose Mariani as she exchanged wedding vows with Anthony P. Cipriano, Jr., on Saturday, November 4.

Ferns, cibotium palms, and white pompons provided a festive setting for the ceremony in the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary church of Ellwood City, at 9:30 a.m. Rev. Fr. Vincent Galliano, Rev. Fr. Stanislaus Joswiak, and Rev. Fr. Vincent Bertoline officiated at the double ring rite. Mrs. Frank Folino of Ellwood City had charge of the church decorations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David R. Mariani, 721 Bell avenue, Ellwood City, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony P. Cipriano, Sr., East Lutton street, New Castle.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the young bride was attractive in a gown of white brocade satin. Exquisite features of the snug bodice were its tiny petal collar, self-covered buttons, and fitted sleeves with points at the wrists. The princess lines of the skirt added to the grace of the cathedral train.

A band of pleated satin, embellished with dainty seed pearls, caught up her fingertip veil of imported French illusion. She observed the traditional something old, new, borrowed and blue.

Miss Charlotte Cipriano, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, attired in a gown of light green brocade satin. A petal collar, cap sleeves, and a row of tiny covered buttons enhanced the fitted bodice of the creation. Additional accents were its matching mitts and Dutch style cloche. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and bronze pompons.

James Cople, Jr., cousin of the groom, was best man for the ceremony.

A wedding reception for 500 guests was held in the Catholic Center of Ellwood City, at 7:30 o'clock. Tommy Frabotta of New Castle provided music for dancing.

The couple departed for a week's honeymoon to New York and will reside with the groom's parents upon their return.

A graduate of the Lincoln high school of Ellwood City, the bride attended Indiana State Teachers college, Indiana, Pa., where she was a member in the Newman club, Winter Sports club, Oak staff, and A. C. E.

The groom, a graduate of the New Castle high school and the University of Pittsburgh, is employed as a draftsman at the Matthews Conveyor Company of Ellwood City.

True Blue Class Change
True Blue class of Third United Presbyterian church will gather Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Herbert Bintrim, Old Princeton road. This is a change from the original plans, as the group was to have met at the church.

W. P. SALLIES CLUB FETES LORETTA PAPA
A pre-nuptial party for Miss Loretta Papa of West Pittsburg was held Tuesday evening when Mrs. Wilfred Aloe opened her home in West Pittsburg to members of the West Pittsburg Sallies club.

During the evening a social time was enjoyed. Later the hostess served a delicious lunch with a yellow and white color scheme highlighting the decorations. Table was attractively set with a centerpiece of fall flowers, flanked by yellow and white bride and groom candles. Places were marked with favors in the form of miniature corsages tied with yellow ribbon.

At the ends of the ribbon were caricatures of the bride and groom, inscribed "Nino and Loretta," November 11.

Miss Papa was presented with a gift from the club. Later a short business meeting was held with Mrs. Wilfred Aloe being elected treasurer of the club.

The bride-to-be will be married at 9 a.m. in the Holy Cross church, West Pittsburg, to Anthony DeBlasio, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick DeBlasio, West Pittsburg. Miss Papa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Papa, West Pittsburg.

ALL-TOGETHER CLUB PLANS ANNIVERSARY
Plans for the All-Together club's 13th anniversary were made Monday evening at the regular meeting in the club's room. The event will be on November 27.

After the meeting, cards were played, prizes going to Mrs. Elizabeth Cubellis, Mrs. Assunta Sabelli, Mrs. Teresa Long, Mrs. Rose Colla, Mrs. Rose Lamorella, and Mrs. Effie Gesue, the latter being a special guest.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

Seek To Localize Korean War

A definite new attempt to localize the Korean war, now aggravated by admitted Chinese Communist participation, shaped up in the wake of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's disclosure that United Nations forces are in "hostile contact" with Manchurian Reds at the Yalu River. There are no indications at the moment that the United States or other western powers are disposed to push the issue.

On the contrary, the British government has made known its desire to maintain diplomatic relations with the Communist regime in Peking and to improve them if possible.

Report Negotiations
 And at the same time, negotiations are reported in progress for the protection of electric power resources on the Yalu river, the Korean Manchurian frontier.

If these actually are under way and reach fruition, they presumably would immobilize Gen. MacArthur's air force and ground troops so far as action north of the border is concerned.

The situation presenting itself at the moment is curious in some respects and unique in others.

United Nations troops from a dozen different countries have arrived in Korea and are enroute to implement the formal decision to knock out Communist oppression in the peninsula by force of arms.

They have gone forward fully equipped. There will be no need to drain off locally available resources to arm them.

Yet in the face of this, Communist China has opened a new gambit which earned its leaders the praise of Soviet Army Commander-in-Chief Nikolai Bulganin in the annual "State of the Soviet Union" message to the Russian people in Moscow.

Situation Confused
 The situation has become all the more confused by the fact that within a few hours after the MacArthur report brought about a special meeting of the Security Council, the Chinese Communists began a front-wide retreat.

Whether this meant the original intervention was begun in error and made subject to later consideration by the Kremlin politburo is of course problematical.

But in the ebb and flow of momentous events there were inescapable signs that the military situation is not being allowed to deteriorate at the border; that the great forces of the Eastern and Western worlds massed for desperate conflict may yet be called off before irreparable damage is done.

The mandate given to Gen. MacArthur in its resolution adopted in June after the North Korean aggression is clear and unmistakable.

To Clear Korea
 He has been committed, as U. N. commander to clear all Korea of Communists. Obviously this means Chinese Communists as well as North Korean ones, and there is no intimation in any of his orders and directives to plunge across frontiers into Siberia or Manchuria.

Whether present U. N. military operations go well or badly, Gen. MacArthur now is heavily fortified by the contributions that are being made by allied nations.

British, Canadian, Australian, New Zealand, Turkish, Siamese, Dutch, and Greek troops now are actively used by his command or on their way to the Far East.

Each unit is described as the best of the individual country could produce on short notice.

They also have the intellectual and moral backing of the Democratic world, a fact inconsequential factor in the light of the Russian from some out-right contribution to the Korean war which in the final analysis could mean only a global catastrophe.

The United Nations has as one of its main tenets the theory that wars can be localized if not legalized and it is obvious that an intention toward this end is governing the thoughts and decisions of Lake Success.

Gen. MacArthur has emphasized the gravity of the present situation. He did not spare his command of the English language in stressing it. But he has not demanded immediate punitive action beyond his existing measures. It still is not impossible to foresee a solution far short of all-out world-wide war.

Just Folks
 By EDGAR A. GUEST

FOOTBALL FAN
 He sat on the side for the visiting team.
 For his old Alma Mater to shout and to scream.
 When a touchdown was scored he went mad with delight.
 "That's showing those bums they are in for a fight!"
 He shouted by forcing his voice to the top.

Then drank from a bottle of something, not pop.

When our boys were gaining for murder he'd beg.
 His mildest suggestion was this: "Break his leg!"
 For imposing the penalties down on the books.

He called all the referees "robbers and crooks!"
 So vicious he seemed that I thought, "Can it be?"
 He's a gentleman, owning a college degree?

I chuckled to hear him. Defeat was his share.
 His college was humbled, and that's hard to bear.
 No voice had he left when the last whistle blew.
 No longer a murder he pleaded to view.

He left us a mild-looking college bred man.
 But that is what football will do to a fan.

From Me To You
 By MESEALL

40 million American citizens yesterday exercised their privilege . . . the most important privilege they have . . . A vote . . . Those of you who didn't vote should take stock of the situation and especially of yourself to see just where the trouble lies.

Today there are some very long faces among the politicians . . . but they are definitely over-shadowed by the bright cheerful faces of the victorious politicians but more than that . . . the majority of the 40 million voters of Tuesday are happy about the whole affair.

Some of the 40 million voters . . . a small majority . . . would like to see the American way of life changed . . . and they did their best to influence others . . . have they succeeded? Just how much success they have had or will have for the future is to be seen . . . Now is the time for all we people who love this nation as a Free Nation to dig in and do the work that many of us have been letting "George" do.

Here in New Castle the vote was rather large . . . considering this being an off-year election . . . The weather happened to be perfect, but we are not giving the weather too much credit right now . . . we feel that the people are gradually becoming aware of the situation in this nation . . . That the people are tired of the present administration antics and wish that some changes would be made . . . and they, the people and only the people are the ones to clear up the mess and get this old Nation back on solid footing . . . the kind of footing that makes it possible for each citizen to enjoy, to the fullest degree, the privileges of the Four Freedoms.

A turn to the right seems to be the course right now . . . we have been bearing left long enough . . . Let's straighten out and make this nation right for the men who died for the things our constitution and the good people stand for.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

PARENTS SELDOM SUSPECT WHEN CHILDREN ARE JEALOUS

Many parents writing me of behavior problems in the older of two children (often under six) state they are sure there is no jealousy problem, that the parents have shown the older child just as much affection as the younger one, that they had prepared this older child for the coming of the baby and that they have tried to follow "what you have advised for preventing or reducing jealousy."

I never doubt the sincerity of such statements. I merely doubt the accuracy of the reported observations. As a psychologist, I know that for any persons to have no jealousies at all is not to be alive. Moreover a few good tricks do not necessarily create the desired attitude in the youngster.

If he is often stubborn or uncooperative, often restless and excitable and noticeably hard to manage, you can be pretty sure he does not feel wholly comfortable inside, does not feel entirely secure.

Center Of Universe
 And I can think of no harder problem than the one he faces. You see, he was the center of the universe till the baby arrived. The affection and attention of his parents, relatives, neighbors, and adult guests revolved about him. Since the baby's arrival the older child has lost his favorite place. Just because the infant is so helpless he must have much of the mother's time and attention and she naturally feels and shows tender affection toward this infant. Also Dad tends to express pride and strong interest in this baby; and the relatives and other persons do so without restraint.

In consequence, the older child gets less attention. How would you feel if you were in his place? This feeling of his is not a happy one, even though he himself expresses enthusiasm over the baby and wishes often to cuddle it. If the older child is 2, 3 or 4, he may suppose the baby is a plaything. And if the older child is older than four or five he may feel the loss of emotional security all the more.

Curious Doctrine
 Recently I heard a curious doctrine expounded, namely, that the second or third child should be delayed several years in order for each younger child to have time to establish his place in the family, to me this seems absurd, for the longer any one child enjoys the center of attention the harder for him to give up this place. If only the emotional security of each child were at stake, the closer the spacing of the children the better. Besides, close spacing in age makes them better playmates. But for the mother's physical and general welfare considerable spacing may be very desirable.

Obviously, it is an enormous problem for parents to keep jealousy at low ebb. None should be so foolish as to hope for no jealousy at all, or that jealousy won't continue and ebb and flow as the child grows older. Moreover, while jealousy is found more often in the older child, it can be the worse in the younger.

We parents should put ourselves in our imagination in the place of each child and try to see, understand and feel as he does; endeavor to help each child feel himself worthy in the family group. On this subject I write at length in my special bulletin, "Jealousy," to be had in a stamped envelope.

State Police Say:
 There is more to driving an automobile today than merely starting, steering and stopping. Safety means more to just a pair of strong hands on the steering wheel. Each year as you renew your operator's license you also renew in effect, your obligation to all other drivers that you will drive safely. But even greater than your legal responsibility is your moral obligation—that no one will be injured or killed or their property damaged by carelessness on your part.

IT OUGHT TO, BUT WILL IT?

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

Nationalism Flames In Asia

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—During most of the election campaign now ended I have been ten thousand miles away. But one thing I could feel certain of, and that the Republicans were repeating their old charge that the Truman administration had "lost" China to the communists.

To talk as though "losing" China were the fault of a few individuals is a childish oversimplification of the vast historical forces at work in the world. The flames of nationalism are burning fiercely throughout Asia. And for that matter on our very doorstep, in Puerto Rico, this same consuming fire has produced an abortive revolt and the attempt on President Truman's life.

Memories Of Oppression
 Their nationalism is fed by deep-rooted memories of colonial oppression and by real and fancied injustices during the years when colonial masters from the west held native peoples in subjection. Whether any true cooperation between east and west is possible in the light of this aroused nationalism is open to serious doubt.

India is a fascinating example of both the constructive and the destructive forces inherent in nationalism. The leaders of a people newly independent are striving to fashion a nation that will combine the best of the new and the old. They are working with zeal and energy against obstacles that must at times seem almost overwhelming.

On the destructive side is the fierce, seemingly irreconcilable quarrel with Pakistan over which country shall get the province of Kashmir or, in the last resort, how Kashmir is to be divided between them. This is one phase of the tragedy of partition which split India between Moslems and Hindus.

In some sections of the press the British are openly blamed for partition. They are accused of setting the two religious communities against each other on the ancient principle of divide and rule which so long enabled a handful of Britishers to rule the Indian sub-continent.

This is a part of the rancorous past that constantly produces suspicion and antagonism. The heritage from the past works against achievement of the kind of co-operative relationship that both the British and American governments earnestly want.

Source Of Suspicion
 One source of suspicion is the deep inferiority complex in the face of American power. This helps to explain the bitter attacks on the United States, and magazines in India, which appear in many newspapers and magazines in India. America's use of her great new resources of power often show immaturity and impatience which are probably our two greatest faults in our approach to Asia.

When impatience and immaturity meet hypersensitivity and pride, overlaying a deep inferiority complex, the result can be most unhappy. A background of goodwill for America was laid in India during the war years by two of America's ablest career diplomats, William Phillips and George R. Merrell. At the present moment that goodwill seems to be vanishing rapidly.

Greater Effort Essential
 One thing is certain, and that is that from both sides a greater effort at understanding is essential. Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru has often complained of the failure of the west to try to understand the east.

But this same accusation can be brought against India's leaders. They have shown far too little understanding of what the American effort to put down communism aggression in Korea has actually meant in terms of sacrifice and treasure. Some sections of the Indian press have made it sound as though the United States were to blame for the bloodshed and destruction in Korea.

The misunderstandings of the past can never justify failure to continue to work for at least a limited partnership with both India and Pakistan. Perhaps Nehru will have more understanding for the position of the west now that communist China has bluntly rejected Nehru's appeal for negotiation on Tibet and has started a campaign to subjugate that remote mountain fastness.

Sneered Too Early?
 At the same time, those in this country who now gloat sneer at Nehru for his repeated warning on possible communist Chinese action in North Korea may have sneered a little too early. What is happening in Korea gives point to the warnings that India's prime minister has sent to London and Washington.

The greatest patience, effort, goodwill and understanding are essential if anything like a permanent relationship is to be built between east and west. It will take far more unity inside America than we have shown thus far. If we pursue a family quarrel over who has "lost" China or Indo-China or India, then surely all of Asia will be foreclosed.

REINFORCED CONCRETE
 Reinforced concrete is supposed to be in strength, and how. The iron seems to keep things firm. Some people's heads seem to resemble concrete, they are so dense. But that is another story.

People need reinforcement with iron too. Mom studies the food problem so that she knows what foods provide the iron.

Sometimes Sally needs some iron pills. If she is a little pale Mom asks the doctor about it.

Iron in the blood is better than lipstick and rouge although they are good too.

The Spanish Twist

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 8.—Mr. Dooley used to observe that the Supreme Court followed election results—and now, rather surprisingly in the case of Spain—it appears that the State Department follows Congress.

This admission comes out, as reluctantly as a pulled tooth, when you discuss the Spanish question with State Department officials. The savants of Foggy Bottom have no great admiration for the minor statesmen of Capitol Hill where, as the saying goes, the pilots too often fly by the seat of their pants.

Course Of Three Years

Still, in this case at least, there is something to be said for instinctive as against intellectual navigation. For fully three years now Congress has demonstrated a feeling that we should be practical, rather than ideological, about the Spanish dictatorship. Significantly, the top leaders in foreign affairs have been in the background; the half-gods have led this movement. Several efforts to include Spain in Marshall Plan funds have been sidetracked. But, finally, a $62 million loan was authorized against considerable opposition from Foggy Bottom and the White House. There was, to be sure, a $100,000 lobby behind the loan. But even so, Congress acted on the instinct that any enemy of Russia is a friend of ours.

Viewpoint Has Been Different

The State Department's viewpoint has been quite different. As late as 1946, any enemy of Russia was an enemy of ours. In that year we suspended ambassadorial relations with Spain and went along with the Communist-sponsored UN resolution which condemned Franco and as a blood brother to the defeated Nazi and Fascist regimes, ruling her out of the family of nations. This was a haughty, if understandable, gesture four years ago. But the State Department maintained it for too long. Only last week did Foggy Bottom relent by sponsoring a UN counter-resolution to restore ambassadorial relations and, possibly, to open the way for receiving Spain into the family circle at Lake Success.

Concessions Not Made Willingly
 No one should suppose that the State Department made these concessions willingly or in good grace. Quite the contrary. Without pressure from Congress—and from the Pentagon—it is altogether probable that Franco, a natural ally against Russia, would be allowed to languish indefinitely on the fringe of Europe. That is, without pressure from Congress, the outbreak of European war might well have found Franco on the sidelines, just as Chiang is on the sidelines while war rages in several parts of Asia.

Here, certainly, is a matter which ought to concern the incoming 82nd Congress, created by yesterday's elections. The newly shuffled body of lawmakers is vis-a-vis with the State Department which has consistently preferred to do the wrong thing for ideological reasons rather than the right thing for instinctive reasons.

Ideologically, we may be forced to regard Franco and Chiang as corrupt and wicked men. Instinctively, we must—or should—regard them as instruments to use against a mortal enemy who has sworn to destroy us.

Unusual Responsibility On Congress
 It is a situation, I think, which puts an unusual and not often recognized responsibility upon the new Congress. The State Department will not willingly do the practical thing and abandon a haughty, over-holy attitude toward anti-Red dictatorships. This attitude, of course, is inspired by the quick notion that foreign policy is a righteous crusade to discomfit the wicked and to bring democracy to the benighted.

But, as we know in the case of Spain, the State Department will change its attitude under severe pressure from Congress. Politicians, especially the minor ones, survive by their instincts and operate by their judgment of what's practical. These aren't bad rules for a national foreign policy, either.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Since so many scientists, economists, educationalists and other lists are making surveys, I said to myself "Who am I NOT to make a survey?"

So I went ahead and made one. The purpose of my survey was to find the DEFINITE answers to two questions:

1) Is smoking harmful?
 2) Is drinking injurious?

Not being a scientist, I used no instruments or gadgets for my survey.

But I did ask a lot of people. First of all I asked doctors. I happen to know quite a few doctors who are members of the Adventurers' club, to which I also belong.

At one of our dinners I approached every doctor I saw in the room.

Roughly speaking, about 95 per cent were smoking cigarettes, cigars or pipes while I talked to them. Still roughly speaking, 98.7 per cent held glasses with a brown liquid.

Almost all of the doctors looked hale and hearty.

To sum up their replies to my question "Is smoking harmful?" "I really don't know."

The prevalent answer to the other question "Is drinking injurious?" was "That all depends."

I also asked a number of people who had given up smoking or drinking on the advice of their physicians or for other reasons.

Some of them said they felt better. Others felt worse.

One, who used to smoke a lot but is now a non-smoker, told me that when he smoked he was a pretty good fellow. Now he is what is commonly called a "stinker."

And so it went.

The result of my survey may best be expressed in the words of Frederic C. Dumaine, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

He is 84 years old, goes to business every day and still rides horseback occasionally.

By his looks he is good for many more years.

When asked to what he attributed his wonderful condition, he replied: "I never did anything excessively, one way or the other."

Personality As A Means To Success Is Discussed

What is being done to assure your child success? Are the schools and the parents working together to help the children of New Castle develop a sound personality? The answer to this question may determine the happiness that all parents and teachers wish for all children.

Studies have shown that 88.8% of all people who lose their jobs lose them because of the failure to adjust to situations and to fellow workers. They are not released because of lack of ability to do the job, but because of emotional instability, poor personality, bad dispositions, poor human relations. This same factor is the stumbling block in preventing individuals from receiving promotions.

Tells Same Story
The picture of mental hospitals tells the same story. The high percent of patients in mental institutions in comparison with the number of people in all other hospitals is overwhelming. Job loss, failure for promotion, or perhaps a mental hospital—results of the lack of good human relations and stability. Wise then are we to consider what factors help in developing this personal adjustment. They may grow and receive satisfaction in the study of the three R's, or again they may need special consideration. What ever study or activity emphasizes a good personality development should be encouraged.

Where then do we find these factors? From the years of work of psychologists the entire field sums up in recognition of five basic needs of individuals. In proportion to the meeting of these needs can the success and happiness of a person be expected.

Fundamental Need
One fundamental need of everyone is the need for belonging. The infant must feel he belongs. Lack of affection and belongingness in the first five or six years of life is one major factor underlying many neuroses. Industry points out that workers are happier and produce better when they have a feeling of being accepted and worthy. The same feeling is important in democratic group behavior.

The need for recognition is the second factor agreed upon. The child who is unsuccessful in studies often misbehaves in order to secure attention. Experiments have indicated that praise produces more effective work than reproof. The need for attention or recognition is not a weakness; it is a basic need in our culture.

Another Basic Need
Another need basic to personality growth is response, the opportunity to talk as freely and as fully as one desires. Response is so important because it provides a situation in which person-to-person relationship is created. It also provides belongingness and recognition. The process of verbalizing one's inner feelings is important to growth. Talk and emotion are very closely related. Talk may be a safety valve which releases emotion and tension when the pressure becomes too great.

Growth is stimulated by new experiences. As a child grows older he becomes a different person in many ways. This may mean that old methods and procedures are outgrown. The same lessons, the same questions, the same walls can become deadening. When life becomes too monotonous many persons turn their energy upon themselves and become neurotic. It is possible that energies available to an average person are greater than may be realized and that new experiences are often a means of releasing these energies. Need For Responsibility

The need for responsibility is a combination of the other needs. To the growing personality tasks and opportunities to work at them are necessary. This responsibility must be appropriate to the person's capacities, neither too easy nor too difficult. Careful policies are important to delegate responsibility and to help individual pupils realize that the responsibility must be faced and accepted.

These five basic needs then—a feeling of belonging or acceptance, recognition, response, new experiences, and responsibility, needs essential to the growth of personality, form a definite pattern for careful consideration. The care of the parent, the guidance of each teacher, the curriculum, the activities of the school could well be checked from the point of giving the child the basic needs of growth. Individual differences must be recognized and met for each child if he is to be helped in this growth. Evaluation of our program could well be based on the degree in which we are supplying possibilities for the realization of these needs.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By FR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Laying the Groundwork.

They were sitting next to me in the grill car as we sped toward New York and I couldn't help but hear. Mr. A. said, "I'm a meat-and-potato man. I just won't eat all the stuff that a woman wants to prepare."

Mr. B. responded, "Well, that's your business, I suppose, but I feel sorry for your wife."

It would have been interesting to see a flash-back of A's early childhood. In all probability, it was there that his limited approach to food had its beginnings. Too much insistence on eating everything may have started the pattern. Or perhaps it was lack of any attempt on the part of his parents to introduce new foods. Whether for these or for other reasons, we can be pretty sure that experiences in the early years caused the fussiness about food in the adult.

We who have young children in our families today still face the problem that A's parents had with him some 50 years ago. And, as with so many other things, the middle road seems the best. Too much pressure is likely to result in stubborn refusal. Indifference to what a child eats will often build restricted appetite. Feeling our way calmly, encouraging by example, and introducing new foods in small lots are among the ways we can help the child avoid being a problem to himself or others so far as eating goes.

Lawrence County Farm And Home News

By Extension Representatives

LAWRENCE COUNTY MARKS 4-H ACHIEVEMENT WEEK

Lawrence County 4-H club members will join with 2,000,000 other boys and girls throughout the country in observing National 4-H Achievement Week, November 4 to 12.

This year Lawrence county boys and girls carried 142 agricultural projects. These projects and the number enrolled were: 5 members with lambs, 9 baby beef, 11 capons, 17 strawberry, 25 dairy, 37 pig and 36 vegetable projects.

Highlights for agricultural club members include the 4-H Dairy club round-up at Mt. Jackson in August at which 24 or the 25 members exhibited their calves and heifers. The August pig club round-up and sale in Pittsburgh and the Junior Livestock Show in Pittsburgh to be held November 13-16 are also important events.

ALLOW PLENTY OF SPACE TO AVOID PULLET LOSSES

Selecting only sound pullets for housing as future layers, and grading according to development and maturity, may eliminate the hazard of crowding on many farms. This practice will put more money in the farmer's pocket, as well as provide more efficient meat and egg production.

Crowding results in less feeder space per bird usually, although this condition is easily remedied. It makes building a deep litter more difficult; in fact, it helps increase the wet litter problem which, in turn, affects the labor problem. It increases the disease hazard, because there are too many birds in a given amount of floor space.

Roosting problems also are increased by crowding. Ventilation must be more carefully managed. More floor eggs may be laid which will give more opportunity for vent picking to become serious.

Some poultrymen feel that when pens are overcrowded the chickens' reaction to their environment will usually result in decreased numbers until the requirements of floor space are met. Too often the reduction in numbers does not stop at this point, but once started, goes on to disastrous proportions. Good management seeks to prevent trouble by avoiding it. It is good management not to overcrowd the laying quarters.

SUGGESTIONS FOR INFORMAL BRIDE

"Is it permissible to carry an arm bouquet at an afternoon wedding when the bride intends to wear an afternoon dress or suit? I intend to have a small reception at a hotel for the immediate family and a few close friends. Is it necessary for me to write invitations to those I desire to be present or is it permissible to invite them verbally; that is, if I do not send out engraved invitations? If written, how should they be signed?"

Answer: (1) While it is permissible for an informal bride to carry an arm bouquet, it is usual and preferable for her to wear a corsage, especially with street-length clothes.

Invitations written in ink and signed by the bride are correct and customary at an informal wedding. You may verbally invite those you wish to come to the church only.

Formal, engraved invitations are necessary only in the case of a formal wedding.

Question: Do the parents or the Godparents give the Baptismal fee to the clergyman?

Answer: The father should accompany the baby and its Godparents to the church for the Christening. Either the father or the Godfather may present the fee to the clergyman. It should be sealed in an envelope and actually paid by the father.

Question: When a bride received a joint wedding gift from her co-workers (15 altogether) must she send separate thank-you notes or will one to the entire office force suffice?

Answer: She may properly send one note addressed to the office manager to be passed around for all to read.

At least 10,000,000 Americans sneeze through protracted "summer colds" unaware that the allergy they have may develop into serious asthma if neglected.

This former screen comedian and director, Slim Summerville, was born in Albuquerque, N. M. His first film work was as director of comedies. His early pictures include "The Beloved Rogue," "The Chinese Parrot," "King of the Rodeo," "Shannon of Broadway," "The Last Warning," "Wreck of the Hesperus," "Tiger Rose" and "One Hysterical Night." After 1930 he was seen in "Troopers Three," "All Quiet on the Western Front," "King of Jazz," "Horse Play," "The Farmer Takes a Wife," "Way Down East," "The Country Doctor," "The Road Back," "Jesse James," "Western Union," "Tobacco Road," etc., and the last listed is "I'm From Arkansas."

This famous and beloved reformer, Florence Nightingale, was born in Florence, Italy, May 12, 1820, and named for the city. Her childhood was spent in England, however. Not content with the life of a society girl, she began to visit hospitals, and took a regular course in hospital nursing. She was serving as head of a hospital for invalid women in London when the country was profoundly stirred by reports of the suffering of sick and wounded in the Crimean war. With the aid of Secretary of State Sidney Herbert, she set out for the Crimea with a number of nurses under her supervision. Her work there in nursing and cheering of the sick and wounded, and in bringing better hygienic hospital conditions, are legendary. She succeeded in substantially lowering the mortality rate. She lived to be 90 years old, never ceasing her efforts to reform hospital methods. The hospital founded by her is still serving the sick and training nurses in London. She died on Aug. 13, 1910.

Don't be HALF-SAFE

by VALDA SHERMAN

Many mysterious changes take place in your body as you mature. Now, the glands under your arms begin to secrete daily a new type of perspiration containing substances which will—if they reach your dress—cause ugly stains and clinging odor. You'll face this problem throughout womanhood. It's not enough merely to stop the odor of this perspiration. You must now use a deodorant that stops the perspiration itself before it reaches—and ruins—your clothes.

As doctors know, not all deodorants stop both perspiration and odor. But Arrid does! It's been proved that the new cream deodorant Arrid stops underarm perspiration 1 to 8 days safely—keeps underarms dry and sweet.

Remember this, too. Arrid's antiseptic action kills odor on contact—prevents formation of odor up to 48 hours and keeps you "shower-bath" fresh. And it's safe for skin—safe for fabrics.

So, don't be half-safe. Don't risk your happiness with half-safe deodorants. Be Arrid-safe! Use Arrid to be sure. Arrid with Garamogen will not dry out, and it's so pleasant and easy to apply. Get Arrid today—only 39¢ plus tax.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERR

Lee Lyles, vice-president of the Atcheson, Topeka and Santa Fe, was present when a young minister gave his first sermon in a Kansas City church. It went on and on, and several members of the congregation predicted he'd never do. Lyles was more optimistic, however. "I considered it a good trial run," he said. "The young man's service will improve as soon as he gets better terminal facilities."

Rockwell Kent recalls that in his student days as a painter in Woodstock he encountered a very pretty farm girl and told her, "I'll give you five dollars if you let me paint you." The girl said, "Okay, mister, if you'll tell me how I can get it off afterwards."

Small boy's inspiration in a written test on anatomy: "Your legs is what if you ain't got two pretty good ones you can't get to first base, and neither can your sister." (Copyright, 1950, by Bennett Cerr. Distributed by King Features Syndicate)

Council Nears Decision On 1951 Budget

Members of council today attempted to balance the 1951 budget but reached no final decision, and following two hours of study, adjourned the conference to Friday when another attempt to complete the budget will be made.

To sum up the conference, Finance Director Albert Hoyland stated:

If the tax millage is raised from 10 to 11 mills, and an amusement tax of 10 per cent is imposed, the required $1,000,000 necessary can be met. The $1,000,000 would include a $15.40 monthly living raise for all employees.

All council excepting Councilman Davis were apparently agreed a raise was necessary, also an amusement tax, but they were not agreed as to whether all women employees should receive a raise in pay.

Councilman Davis said that, "if it is necessary to raise the property tax to grant a raise, I am opposed to raising taxes, and would like to see the present tax structure remain in effect during 1951."

Bowles Loses In Connecticut

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Democratic Gov. Chester Bowles has been defeated in his re-election bid in Connecticut but the voters slated Sen. Brien McMahon for a return trip to Washington and handed a slight edge to Sen. William Benton in Tuesday's balloting.

GOP Rep. John Davis Lodge rolled up a plurality of about 17,000 votes in his successful campaign to oust the state's chief executive. McMahon ran ahead of his Democratic ticket and won re-election by a comfortable margin over his opponent, Joseph Talbot.

Benton claimed victory during the early morning hours although complete unofficial returns gave him less than a 700-vote edge over his Republican opponent, Prescott Bush.

Bush retired for the night without making an official statement and observers said the GOP may await compilation of official returns before conceding defeat.

A "flabbergasted" Jimmy Dukes, pleasantly surprised at replacing Connie Mack as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, lost no time today in spouting off about his 1951 plans for the club.

HUGE ATTACK MADE IN KOREA NEAR BORDER

half of the key town of Wonni from which they had been ejected last week by Chinese and Korean Reds.

This was announced Wednesday night by U. S. First Corps Field Headquarters which said other actions along the Chongchon line during the day consisted wholly of patrol thrusts that produced little contact with the enemy.

Closely Engaged
The patrols captured nine prisoners, the announcement said, "but their nationality was not yet known."

In the middle of the peninsula's "waist," American and South Korean troops were closely engaged with Communist forces at pivotal Tokchon and east of that junction town. U. S. Second Division units pushed into the vicinity of Oechang, 20 miles east of Tokchon. A huge Communist convoy of 700 vehicles moved toward the Chongchon sector from the Manchurian border as swarms of Allied planes attacked the enemy traffic.

DEWEY AGAIN RE-ELECTED AS N.Y. GOVERNOR

which, in addition to the Dewey re-election, produced these results:

Lehman Re-elected
Re-election of Democratic Sen. Herbert H. Lehman over Lt. Gov. Joe R. Hanley by more than 3,000 votes.

Election of the GOP candidate for lieutenant-governor, state comptroller and attorney general by margins far below Dewey's. A net gain of two seats for Republicans among the 45 Congressmen from the nation's largest state.

Defeat of Rep. Vito Marcantonio, leftwing ALP member, by Democrat James G. Donovan, who ran with Republican and Liberal backing.

Near defeat of Rep. W. Kingsland Macy, recipient of the famous "Hanley letter," in his overwhelmingly Republican Suffolk-Nassau district. A recount of the ballots is likely in view of Macy's narrow 33-vote margin in a district normally Republican by 40,000 or more.

Election as New York's mayor of Acting Mayor Vincent Impellitteri, independent Democrat running without benefit of organization support, by more than 303,000 votes, a feat unparalleled in the long history of the most politically-conscious city in the city in the nation.

PHILADELPHIA LOSS OVERCOME IN REST OF STATE

went their four running mates for other statewide offices.

State Sen. Lloyd H. Wood, of Montgomery county, defeated Judge Michael A. Mushmanno of Pittsburgh for the lieutenant-governorship, while incumbent William S. Livengood, Jr., was re-elected internal affairs secretary.

Former Pennsylvania Gov. John C. Bell, Jr., was elected to a 21-year State supreme court term, defeating Judge M. J. Eagen, of Lackawanna county.

And Superior Court Judge Blair F. Gunther snagged a 10-year term on the high tribunal by whipping Washington county Judge Roy I. Carson.

Control Legislature
In addition, the Duff-Fine victory assured the Republicans' control of the state's congressional delegation and maintained the party's majorities in both houses of the state legislature for the 1951 session.

The returns in the fiercely-contested senatorial and gubernatorial battles showed Duff and Myers and Fine and Dilworth sharing close to 3,500,000 votes.

Not since 1938, when Arthur H. James was elected Republican governor, has statewide off-year balloting exceeded that figure. In 1938, 3,814,922 ballots were cast.

Many political observers saw in Duff's victory a repudiation of President Truman's fair deal program and foreign policy.

Sen. Myers had campaigned flatly on the basis of Mr. Truman's program as well as his own record of 12 years service in Washington.

CASH DEVICE

Legislature To Be Dominated By Republicans

By JOHN PAGET
(N.S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 8.—A Republican-dominated legislature will be on hand at the state capitol when governor-elect John S. Fine is inaugurated January 16.

The new senate lineup appears to be 30 Republicans and 15 Democrats, a blow to any hope Fine may have nurtured for ramming through his executive nominations which require a two-thirds majority in the upper chamber.

The final house makeup hovered around 110 Republicans and 98 Democrats or five more than needed by the GOP to beat back opposition to administration legislation.

A simple majority is needed in both houses for legislative approval.

The possibility arose that senate president pro tempore M. Harvey Taylor, Dauphin county Republican and GOP state chairman, may take over the governorship early in January. Should U. S. Senator-elect James H. Duff decide to report for the opening of the 83rd Congress next week, before his term at Harrisburg ordinarily would end, he would resign as governor and Taylor would step up. Taylor's move would be dictated by the absence of Lt. Gov. Daniel B. Strickler who is in federal service as commander of Pennsylvania's famed 28th Infantry Division.

Farewell Event Honors Gaisers

Congregation of the First Methodist church paid fitting tribute to Rev. and Mrs. James A. Gaiser at a farewell event conducted in the church on Tuesday evening. Members and friends of the church turned out in a large number as a parting gesture to Rev. and Mrs. Gaiser, who during their brief three year stay in the city have made a host of friends.

Mrs. Leonard Cramer, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, who served as chairman for the occasion, introduced Mrs. James Moorehead, who led in a song fest in which all joined in singing "America The Beautiful"; several rounds and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Mrs. George Schuller pleasingly favored with "Calm As The Night" and "My Task" as vocal offerings. The rich voice of Sam McCreary, Jr., was heard in "Somewhere A Voice Is Calling" and "Without A Song."

The New Castle Sub-district of the Grove City District of Methodist ministers, of which Rev. Gaiser is a past president, was represented by Rev. Harry Silvis of Volant, who presented the Gaisers with a gift indicating the esteem in which they were held by that group.

Worrell Jones, speaking for the congregation, gave Rev. and Mrs. Gaiser a fine and useful token of their affection for the departing family.

Dr. Thomas H. Morris superintendent, was called upon for a few well chosen words in which he told of his esteem and love for the Gaiser family and the vacancy which will be created in the Grove City district as they move to their new place of labor in Westmoreland county. Rev. Gaiser, thoughtfully expressed his heart felt thanks for the expressions of love extended to him and his family and for the genuine cooperation he has received in the past.

Concluding the program, a period of fellowship and farewell was conducted in the church parlors. Refreshments were served, with Miss Mary Alice White and Mrs. H. C. Weaver presiding at the tea table.

LIONS CLUB NEWSBOY CAMPAIGN LEADERS

Lion's Club "Newsboy Campaign" committee, makes last minute arrangements for their newspaper sale on November 14. They are: (seated) A. H. Borland, general chairman; N. N. Jaquish, Arthur Meek. (Standing) Jack F. French, Earl C. Jarrett and Larry Howell.

Lions Club Members Will Become Newsboys For Day

If everyone in New Castle does not have a copy of The News to read on Tuesday, November 14, it will be no fault of members of the New Castle Lions club. Next Tuesday, the Lions will become newsboys for the day, and will hawk their sales in mills, business places, and the street corners, as a means of raising funds for their work among the blind folks of the county, and other welfare projects of the club.

Final arrangements for the project were made at yesterday's luncheon meeting in The Castle-ton, and the club had as its speaker for the day, W. J. Gingenbach, circulation manager of the Erie Times, who told how the Erie Lions conducted this event, which has been carried on now for twelve years.

Sales Climb Steadily
The first year the stunt was tried out, the club netted $1,500 and since that time, sales have steadily climbed, a total of $5,800 being raised through the sale last year.

He stated that the Erie club had taken as its slogan, no change, and urged the local club to follow this policy. It is accepted with good grace in Erie, he stated, and helps swell the total receipts for the sale considerably.

Other pointers on things which have made the annual newspaper sale a success were recounted, and will help the local club materially in the first year of this venture.

Club members will be on hand early next Tuesday afternoon to get their supply of papers, and from then on until dark, it will be no novelty to see grownup newsboys, out hawking their wares from every street corner.

The project is a most worthy one, and bespeaks the cooperation of every citizen. President Harry Helmick, of the Lions club stated today, as the money will be used to assist those who are more unfortunate than most of us.

President Grover Cleveland's home, "Gray Gables," at Buzzard's Bay, Mass., was insulated with mineral wool a quarter-century after the material was first produced from smelter slag.

Chest Meeting Thursday Noon

Results Of Week To Be Reported

Community Chest campaign chairmen will gather together Thursday at noon at The Castle-ton hotel to report the results of the cleanup work conducted by the workers this week.

It is hoped by campaign officials that the goal of $127,600 will be reached at the meeting, though there is some doubt that the figure will be reached this week.

Campaign workers are urged to get their final reports in to their chairmen, so that as complete a report as possible may be made by each chairman.

Should the mark fall somewhat short of the goal at the meeting, it is probable that open season will be declared to reach the goal.

UTENSIL USE

FORT COLLINS, Colo.—(INS)—Now that metals are once again channeling into war efforts, home-makers are given advice on how to make kitchen utensils last longer. Miss Kathryn McNeely, of Colorado A. & M. college, says that use of wooden spoons and rubber scrapers instead of metal spoons, and care to avoid overheating will prevent aluminum utensils from warping and also retain the original finish.

If Mike Boldin can stick with the starting eleven, he should be the University of Pittsburgh's chief candidate for all-American honors.

Report Largest Jet Fighter Mass Flights To Europe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—The Air Force announced that two fighter groups in Germany have been completely re-equipped with 179 new F-84E Thunderjets in the largest mass flights of jet fighters ever to cross the Atlantic.

The aircraft, the Air Force said, were flown from the U. S. in two approximately equal groups beginning on Sept. 15 and Oct. 21. Officials said all planes had reached their destinations by Oct. 28.

The new type aircraft replaced F-80 shooting stars at the Fürstentum Air Force base and F-47 Thunderbolts at Neubiberg base.

It was explained that each of the German Air bases will now have a complement of about 75 Thunderjets on operational duty and another 15 in reserve.

Both mass flights across the Atlantic were led by Col. Cy Wilson of Falls Church, Va.

The flights originated at Bergstrom base, Austin, Tex. The planes made stops at eastern U. S., Labrador, Iceland and British bases.

Governor-Elect Of Pennsylvania Makes Statement

NANTICOKE, Pa., Nov. 8.—(INS)—Former Judge John S. Fine today hailed his election as Pennsylvania governor as a victory in his fight for "survival of the two-party system."

From his home in Nanticoke, Fine said: "I fought for a good cause, the survival of the two-party system. I gave that cause everything I had."

my time, my reputation, my position as judge. The cost has been terrific. Throughout the campaign, the sustaining powers have been an abiding faith in our cause and Gov. Duff's faith in me.

"Our victory means that the two-party system is still sustained. Pennsylvania is healthy. Pennsylvania remains strong. We will keep it that way. Thank you."

Don't stall...

get new fall-grade Anti-stalling

ESSO EXTRA GASOLINE

It helps prevent stalling... those irritating start-up, parking, and traffic-light stalls so common on damp, chilly days.

It's especially good in cars with AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS where restarting after stalling is more troublesome.

It's a big Fall Extra for your money in Esso Extra—the high-test gasoline long famous for quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock power and long mileage! And Esso Extra is the ONLY premium gasoline with patented Esso Solvent Oil that fights harmful engine deposits.

DON'T STALL ANOTHER DAY... TRY A TANKFUL RIGHT AWAY!
And when you're in, there's no better time to let your Esso Dealer give your car a complete check-up for the winter driving you'll be doing!

Don't let this happen to you!

Stalling that occurs on cool, humid days (30° to 55° temperatures, humidity above 65%) is generally caused by carburetor "icing." Evaporation of the highly volatile gasolines required for modern cars has a refrigerating effect which freezes moisture out of the air, accumulating icy frost in the carburetor. Anti-Stalling Esso Extra Gasoline helps eliminate this cause of stalling, which is experienced with most cars today. It will not prevent stalling caused by faulty carburetor adjustment or electrical failure.

TIME AND LONGEVITY

In ancient Rome, the average life span was about 23 years; by 1880, life expectancy had increased to 40 years. It is now about 64 years. Medical research now indicates that all chronic conditions of old age may be avoidable. Many scientists agree that man's natural life span should be between 120 and 150 years. By continuing to combat chronic diseases which make man die prematurely, and by improving health habits, man can bring about a profound change in his life expectancy.

MISS MARY ZACCHEO WEDS ROBERT WADE

An impressive double ring ceremony united the lives of Miss Mary Louise Zaccchio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zaccchio, Division Avenue, Ellwood City, and Robert Paul Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Wade, R.D. 9, New Castle, on Saturday, November 4.

Vows were exchanged by the couple at 10:30 a.m. in the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary church, Ellwood City, with Rev. Fr. Vincent Galliano, Rev. Fr. Stanislaus Josiwak and Rev. Fr. Vincent Bertoline officiating. The church altar was decorated with candelabra, ferns, mums, and poinsons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in a gown of slipper satin and lace. The fitted bodice was styled with a nylon tulle and long tapered sleeves. Dainty wide lace trimmed the hemline and skirt which terminated in a cathedral train. Her four-tier veil of imported silk illusion was caught up in a crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias centered with an orchid.

Miss Agnes Marie Zaccchio, as her sister's maid of honor, wore a tone on tone gown of green tulle, with a matching sash cascading to the hemline in back. A matching cape and helmet were pretty accents of the creation. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses to complete her ensemble.

Bridesmaids included Miss Debra Vitis, Youngstown, O.; Miss Angela Fava, New Castle, and Miss Carmella Piccerello, Ellwood City. They were attired in rose colored gowns of tulle, trimmed with bands of satin. Matching capes and helmets were additional features of the ensembles. Each bridesmaid carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Frances Leitner of Ellwood City was the flower girl for the ceremony, wearing a gown styled like that of the bridesmaids. Her bouquet consisted of yellow roses. Bernie Campbell of New Castle served the groom as best man. Ushers were George Goltardt of New Waterford, Pa., John Papa of West Pittsburg, and Phillip Netti of West Pittsburg.

Rose Marie Siriani, church organist, accompanied the soloist, Dom Mundo.

A dinner was served to 125 guests and a reception was held for 25 guests at a New Castle tearoom. The couple later departed for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. They will reside with the bride's parents upon their return.

The bride, a graduate of the Lincoln high school, Ellwood City, and the Youngstown Comptometer school, is a secretary at the Reliable Trunk and Bag company, West Pittsburg.

O'Mahoney May Be Successor To Lucas As Senate Leader

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (D) Wyo., is favored today in the impending party contest for the Senate Democratic leadership now held by defeated Scott Lucas of Illinois.

Both Lucas and Senate Majority Whip Francis Myers of Pennsylvania were overhauled in the Republican tide recorded in Tuesday's off-year elections.

Lucas will serve out his term as majority leader for the remainder of this Congress, but the Democratic post must be filled anew when the 82nd Congress meets on January 3.

But Donnell's expected strength in rural areas of Missouri failed to appear this time and the big-city vote in St. Louis and Kansas City was enough to send Democratic ex-Congressman Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., of St. Louis to the Senate in Donnell's place.

Latest returns gave Donnell 426,755 and Hennings 560,620.

Returning to Congress will be at least nine of Missouri's present twelve-man Democratic group. The lone Republican in the present contingent, Dewey Short of Galena, was easily re-elected to office.

its incumbent Republican Senator, Forrest C. Donnell.

Donnell, who was an outspoken supporter of the Taft-Hartley law, was bitterly opposed by organized labor, which dubbed him "labor's enemy number two."

"Number one" on the list was Senator Taft of Ohio, who won by a thumping majority.

its incumbent Republican Senator, Forrest C. Donnell.

Donnell, who was an outspoken supporter of the Taft-Hartley law, was bitterly opposed by organized labor, which dubbed him "labor's enemy number two."

"Number one" on the list was Senator Taft of Ohio, who won by a thumping majority.

But Donnell's expected strength in rural areas of Missouri failed to appear this time and the big-city vote in St. Louis and Kansas City was enough to send Democratic ex-Congressman Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., of St. Louis to the Senate in Donnell's place.

Latest returns gave Donnell 426,755 and Hennings 560,620.

Returning to Congress will be at least nine of Missouri's present twelve-man Democratic group. The lone Republican in the present contingent, Dewey Short of Galena, was easily re-elected to office.

Four U.S. Jet Fighters Win Air Combat

SEOUL, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Four American jet fighters—outnumbered at least two to one—proved their superiority today in history's first all-jet air combat.

The American Shooting Stars destroyed one enemy Russian-type Mig-15 jet and damaged another in the dramatic 600-mile-an-hour dogfight in the northwest corner of Korea 20,000 feet above the Manchurian border area.

Eight to 12 enemy jets were sighted in the border area, but many of them appeared reluctant to engage American planes. American pilots said the communist jets which were painted silver but bore no identification marks seemed intent upon luring the American across the Yalu river border to create an international incident.

and a Buy!

Now it can be told. This clean-lined, smart-stepping 1950 version is the most popular Buick ever built.

Ever since early in the present year, a value-wise public has been taking them away from us as fast as—or faster than—the great Buick factories could roll them out. Within recent weeks, production and sales have set an all-time record.

Count off the distinguished and time-tried features of this winner and you'll know why.

It has a Very Exclusive Motor—Buick's own high-compression Fireball—which gets its driving power from a combustion chamber found in no other car in the world.

It has the bump-smothering softness of coil springs on all four wheels and a torque-tube drive—a comfort combination that no other car provides.

It has Dynaflo Drive*—

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on Super and Special models.

which ushered in a whole new concept of effortless travel.

It has a brilliant styling which sets it apart from every other car on the road.

And it has prices which say "buy me" to any motorist who's looking for maximum money's worth.

Isn't it sensible, while these great cars are still coming off the line, to check with your Buick dealer about getting one to call your own?

Only Buick has Dynaflo—and with it goes:

His Purchases Help Pennsylvania

Like other Bell Telephone men and women in Pennsylvania, "Mac" McEwen is a good customer of local business establishments of many types: food stores, clothing stores, drugstores, service stations.

In fact, it would be hard to find a Pennsylvania business that does not benefit from the purchases of Bell Telephone people, who now earn more than $100 million yearly within the state.

Thus the money you spend in payment of telephone bills does more than buy good telephone service. It assures good wages for telephone people, which in turn helps assure work and wages for great numbers of Pennsylvanians in other lines of business.

Some Of Highlights In Election Results Tuesday

(By International News Service)

A record off-year turnout of more than 40 million voters spectacularly asserted their independence by disregarding party labels and political machines.

Highlights of the election which greatly lessened the Truman administration's control of Congress and brought triumph to the Republican party's outstanding leaders across the nation included:

NEW YORK—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, twice-beaten GOP presidential candidate, overwhelmingly won reelection. Sen. Herbert H. Lehman, Democrat, decisively defeated his Republican opponent, Lt. Gov. Joe Hanley.

CALIFORNIA—Gov. Earl Warren, Republican vice presidential nominee in 1948, won a landslide reelection triumph over James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late president. Rep. Richard Nixon, Republican, soundly whipped Democratic Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas in the California Senate fight.

ILLINOIS—Former Rep. Everett Dirksen, Republican, swept Senate Majority Leader Scott Lucas out of office in a contest the administration had sought desperately to win.

PENNSYLVANIA—Republican Gov. James Duff beat Senate majority whip Francis J. Myers to add to GOP gains in the Senate. Duff, along with Warren and Sen. Robert A. Taft (R) Ohio, thus dramatically entered the 1952 presidential picture.

OHIO—TAFT—"Mr. Republican"—won reelection by a tremendous margin over State Auditor Joseph Ferguson, who had the all-out backing of organized labor.

MARYLAND—Sen. Millard Tydings, Democrat, was defeated by John Marshall Butler, GOP political "unknown". Tydings, chairman of the Senate Armed Service committee, was seeking his fifth Senate term. Charges that he "white-washed" alleged Communist infiltration in government played a part in his defeat. Theodore McKeldin, Republican, ousted Gov. W. Preston Lane.

CONNECTICUT—Sen. Brien McMahon, Democratic chairman of the Congressional Atomic Energy committee, was reelected. Sen. William Benton, Democrat, held a slight lead over his Republican opponent, Prescott Bush. But Democratic Gov. Chester Bowles, former OPA administrator, lost to Rep. John Davis Lodge, Republican, in the gubernatorial race.

MISSOURI—Rep. Tom Hennings, Democrat, whipped Republican Sen. Forrest Donnell in President Truman's home state. Donnell was the only Republican seeking reelection who was defeated.

UTAH—Wallace F. Bennett, Republican, former president of the National Association of Manufacturers, ousted Sen. Elbert D. Thomas, long an administration stalwart.

COLORADO—Sen. Eugene D. Millikin, Republican, one of the administration's sharpest-tongued critics, decisively trounced his Democratic opponent, Rep. John A. Carroll.

INDIANA—Sen. Homer R. Capehart, Republican, won with ease over former Assistant U. S. Attorney General Alex M. Campbell.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATELLE

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Checks are chic again—thanks to television.

Designers explain that with the advent of black and white television, on which only a checked or plaid outfit can show up to spectacular advantage, women are becoming check-conscious. They demand to dress like their TV favorites.

Today a committee of fashion experts is at work on an even more serious phase of the video-style picture: the coming of color TV.

One style spokesman put it:

KIDNEY BEANS

"When color television takes over in the American home, women will be influenced in their modes more by this medium than by any single factor. If navy blue is one of the colors that doesn't televise well—it will be out of the style picture. If red or violet is the best television—medium in color, it will be the best color fashionwise. "Manufacturers may be caught with millions of dollars worth of unusable clothes—because they're in shades that TV can't properly record."

But until color comes to the U. S. home on 30 tubes, the biggest influence is being seen this winter and spring in checks.

The Giants are not a hitting ball club. Durocher purposely traded away his hitting strength to get a solid infield defense from the Braves in Alvin Dark and Eddie Stanky.

Fine Promises To Continue Duff Program

NANTICOKE, Pa., Nov. 8. — (INS) — Governor-elect John S. Fine today promised to "continue the constructive program of Gov. James H. Duff."

He stated: "I am happy on the outcome of yesterday's general election and I want to express my heartfelt thanks to the voters who worked and voted in my behalf. 'The confidence placed in me by the people of Pennsylvania will not be misplaced. I will continue the constructive program of Gov. James H. Duff which means progress for Pennsylvania.' Fine said his immediate plans call for a few days vacation in New York with Mrs. Fine and friends before coming to Harrisburg to attend the Conference of the Council of Republican Women next week.

See Reason For Defeat Of Three Democratic Leaders

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Defeat of the Senate Democratic leaders was viewed today as public fear of the administration foreign and domestic policy on Communism.

The leaders defeated were Majority Leader Lucas, Illinois, Majority Whip Myers, Pennsylvania and Armed Services Chairman Tydings, Maryland. In addition, the California victory of Rep. Nixon (R) over Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas (D), for the Senate was viewed in the same light.

Lucas and Myers carried the ball for President Truman in the Senate on his foreign and domestic policies. Tydings, who conducted an investigation into the charges of Communism in high places made by Sen. McCarthy (R) Wis., personified the administration's domestic campaign against Communism.

Republicans generally said that Tydings' investigation was a "whitewash."

The voters showed their doubts of the administration foreign policy through their reelection by a tremendous majority of Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, "Mr. Republican" himself, who has given U. S. foreign affairs handling some severe criticism and only lukewarm support at best.

CONCEDES DEFEAT

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 8.—Jeanne Crain, who never completed college, is up to her pretty neck in a Greek letter trouble emoting in "Take Care Of My Little Girl," a comedy-drama of college sorority life.

While the picture is based on the facts of sorority life, both Peggy Goodin, the author of the book, and Julius and Philip Epstein, who wrote the movie script, were mighty careful to confuse the names of all sororities and fraternities mentioned in the picture.

Trouble Sets In
That's where Jeanne's trouble comes in. As a freshman dazzled by the number of bids she gets during "pledge week," she has some long speeches filled with the names of the Greek letter houses willing to "rush" her. There are also a number of scenes in which the 50-odd girls in the picture discuss the boy situation, with the emphasis on which fraternity their prospective beaux are affiliated.

"The sorority and fraternity names make up the hardest dialogue I have had to memorize in my six years in pictures," Jeanne admits. "The trouble is, I know the right names, and I have to use the wrong ones. After all, you know the picture is a composite of sororities, not about a particular one, and so the authors have been very careful about changing the names."

Never Attended College
Jeanne was never a sorority girl herself. She was signed to a Twentieth Century-Fox studio contract before she went to college, but she managed to take a year of special courses on the Los Angeles campus of University of California until she made her film debut in "Home in Indiana." They have kept her so busy since—averaging three pictures a year, except for the time she took to bear three sons—that she has had no time to think about school books and college degrees. Jeanne comes from one Greek letter family and she married into another.

"My sister Rita is a Gamma Phi Beta. My husband (Paul Brinkman) is a Delta Kappa Epsilon. Paul's brother, Peter, is a Sigma Alpha Epsilon, just like my father is," said Jeanne.

Chooses Upsilon
The name of the sorority Jeanne chooses in the movie is Upsilon Upsilon, better known as Tri-U, an obvious satirical take-off on all sorority names. Phi Phi, Omega Chi, Delta Mu and Chi Eta are a few of the other female Greek letter names invented or twisted in the script.

Jeanne claims that she worked so hard getting the wrong Greek letters right that it has crept into her conversation at home and is confusing everybody no end.

Miss Grain is pretty happy about her role in the picture. But she definitely thinks the Greeks had too many letters for her comfort.

Neither Team Will Hold Edge In Annual Contest

Westminster College gridders will travel to Meadville Saturday to meet Allegheny College's 'Gators in their next to last game of the current season.

Both teams are four-time losers in intercollegiate competition to date. The 'Gators own a victory over Grove City and a 12-12 tie with the University of Rochester. They have lost to Geneva, Oberlin, Carnegie Tech. and College of Wooster.

Westminster has won two contests while dropping four and tying one. The Titans defeated Grove City and Juniata, fought to a 7-7 deadlock with Bethany and lost to Slippery Rock, Thiel, Geneva, and Waynesburg.

No Decided Edge
Against mutual opponents, neither of the two teams has a decided edge in the scoring column. Westminster defeated Grove City 19-0 while the 'Gator downed the Grovers 31-0. Against Geneva, Westminster lost by an 18-13 count while Allegheny was defeated 20-7.

Last year Westminster and Allegheny fought to a 0-0 tie. On an all-time basis the two teams have played 38 games since their first meeting in 1899. Westminster has won 13 contests, lost 20 and tied five.

American Legion Post 343 will sponsor a team in the industrial league at the YMCA for the 1950-51 season.

The Legion team won the league championship in 1947-48 and was runnerup in 1948-49. They did not put a team on the floor last year.

The team will again be coached by Mike Kulik and is scheduled Wednesday evening, Nov. 8, at 7 o'clock for its first practice session on the Y floor.

Bulldogs Host To Cementers

Bessemer Can Blast Freedom Title Hopes

Ten Bessemer seniors will be making their final football appearance Friday night when the Cementers journey to Freedom for an after dark affair against the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs plodded along relentlessly in their quest for WPIAL recognition, by side-tracking Hopeville Monday. The valley team has jarred seven opponents without effort and figure to make the Cementers victim number eight.

The Bulldogs have tallied 169 points, while holding the opposition to a meagre 25.

The Freedom team runs behind a T formation, and banks heavily on left half Jack Trettle for scoring punch and on quarterback Bob Dimerling for the handling of the T.

Joe DeRosa, James Gagliana, Anthony Galletta, Donald Moore, Angelo Pezzuolo, Ralph Sainato, Frances Schaville, Donald Serjak, Tom Shuluga, and John Soldo, will be wearing the red and black for the last time.

County Class B Basketball Teams Begin Practice

Lawrence County Class B high school basketball teams have started light workouts in preparation for the coming basketball season, which will get under way on Dec. 1, for most of the teams.

The seven county schools will again be grouped in Section 24, WPIAL, with league games scheduled to begin early in January.

Several of the schools will not be able to have any concentrated practice until the end of football season, completion of Fall plays and various other things that disrupt practice sessions.

Most coaches have a big job ahead of them, with the biggest parts of last year's squads lost through graduation.

State Harriers Seek New Honors

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 8. —(INS)—Penn State's all-winning cross-country team, bidding for its first perfect dual meet season since 1947, faces formidable Manhattan at State college Saturday in the last meet on the schedule.

The New Yorkers are rated among the best in the east. Penn State, meanwhile, is entertaining hopes of following its dual meet season with impressive showings in the IC-4A and NCAA championships. In 1949 the Nittany Lions had to be content with third place in IC-4A competition but they came home first in the nationals.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

AL TATE, former New Castle High griddier, won a neat compliment from the announcer of the Illinois-Michigan game Saturday. He said that Al, in his opinion, was the country's outstanding tackle.

One week previous, Al was adjudged the second outstanding lineman. Hence, with such praise, there is reason to believe Al may be regarded as an All-American this year.

Hugh McCormick, who is up in his 70s but doesn't appear it, circulated in the city several days ago.

Shoots are planned as follows: Ellwood City Rod and Gun club, Thursday night; Union Township Volunteer firemen, Saturday night, and Lawrence County Sportsmen's association, Sunday afternoon.

Rose Mooney and her Women's League leaders will bowl against Monaca Friday night at Castle alleys. She was high bowler last Friday night.

Although baseball is out of season, it is recalled Harlansburg, years ago, was prominent on the diamond, their teams, during various years, having been managed by Charlie Colley, Cy Ingham and Pick Gilitch.

One of the misfortunes of hunting season is to have someone steal either a hunting dog or a shotgun. Lloyd Moore suffered the latter misfortune, his 16-gauge Winchester having been swiped from his car. It is yet missing.

Doc McConahy, who "usta" be some infielder, was reported indisposed yesterday. He belongs to that organization known as the "Alley Rats" which for "stick-tiveness" cannot be defeated.

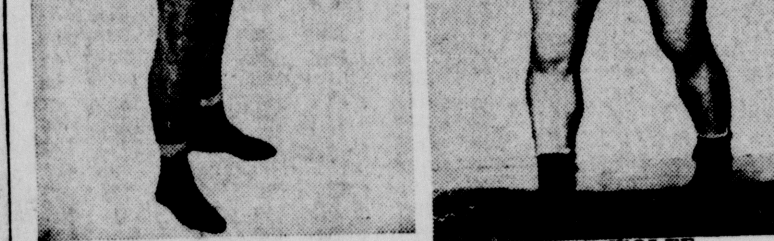

Eddie McMillen, former local resident, spent the week-end at Lake Erie. Eddie is residing at Duquesne.

Garfield Davis, state auditor, just dropped in, back from a fishing trip to Tionesta dam. He reports he caught a beautiful Rainbow trout, but not being a meat hunter he let it go.

He reports that another fisherman hooked a Northerner weighing 15 pounds. The fisherman used a minnow on a six-inch leader.

According to plans, Davis and Dr. Homer Allen plan to deer hunt in Forest county.

Six Men, Two Girls Meet On Mat In Arena Tonight

KAY BELL

JOIE WOLFE

Eight pro' grapplers, two of 'em girls, are prepared to fling each other up and down and possibly though The Arena ring ropes when they meet at 8:30 tonight.

There has not yet been a match which lacked hysteria and with an aggregation of television stars in bout roles tonight there is reason to believe pandemonium may reign.

The main set to will be staged by Len Hughes and Jackie Nichols, both of whom will be making their debut. Each will try to gain a fall, or a decision before 60 minutes expire.

For the first time here, a one fall or 30 minutes match, will be staged by girls, the dames being Jean Holland and Millie Stafford.

Jean greatly excited fans here some weeks ago and Millie hopes to steal her thunder.

The Tag match appears like a rough voyage for all four wrestlers—Ivan Rasputin, bear-like Russian, and Kay Bell, substitute movie actor, vs Joie Wolfe, one of mat-dom's roughest grapplers, and Billy Weidner, strong boy.

In anticipation of another large crowd, the Jefferson A. C. will open the Arena doors at 7 p. m. and no doubt the first pair of wrestlers to enter the ring will put on as exciting a bout as possible.

Anticipate Tough Game With Turtle Creek Friday

Elks Quarterback dinner meetings in the Lodge No. 69 banquet parlor came to an end for the 1950 season last night with the entire Ne-Ca-Hi grid squad, plus nine Union township high players, being guests of Jack Gerson, known familiarly as "Your Jeweler".

The dinner was attended by notables from both schools, and also by Mayor John F. Haven, a member of "69", likewise Treasurer Bernard Hanlon, both ardent football fans.

In addition, the dinner, which was chairmaned by Rube Kennedy and Austin Cowmeadow, was attended by dignitaries of local Elkdom, among them being Exalted Ruler Tom Armstrong and Secretary Verne Carr.

After invocation by Chaplain Walter Gross, Chairman Kennedy introduced Mr. Gerson, host of the gridders from both schools, who said:

"To me, it is a privilege to be host to you boys, and next season, I hope to be host not only to New Castle high, but also to outstanding players from county schools.

"The residents of both city and county have been good to me and my family, and I enjoy this occasion as much as you.

"Every morning I peer out of a window and look upon God's handiwork and wonder how much good I can do during the day.

"Thank God, not only for our fine city and county, but also for our great country.

Mayor Praises "Bride"
"I hope God gives us strength so we can all enjoy our future years."

Mayor Haven paid a compliment to Coach Phil Bridenbaugh by stating "like wine, he seems to grow better with age."

He recalled the two defeats sustained but explained that "every team is bound to lose, now and then, and said the defeats spurred the team to greater efforts."

The mayor praised Mr. Gerson for his sportsmanship in playing host to the gridders, then told of an incident of the 1949 McKeesport game which Ne-Ca-Hi won.

His Honor said that through a McKeesport newspaperman, the mayor of that city reportedly bet him a hat on the outcome of the game.

Two Of New Castle's Finest Tackles Will Play Final Game Friday Night

Two of the finest tackles ever to wear the uniforms of New Castle high school will play their final game of their high school careers Friday night at Turtle Creek.

These two boys—Don "Bucky" Tate and Dante DeFalco—have been the mainstays of the Red Hurricane wall, which has developed into one of the finest in the school's history.

Bucky was named all WPIAL and All-State first string tackle during his junior year and it is hard to see him not receiving the same honors again this season.

Bucky plays on the left side of the Red Hurricane line on defense, but moves over to the right of DeFalco on offense to give the Canes the power necessary with the single wing formation.

He became a regular on the New Castle football team as a sophomore and played on the 1948 and 1949 championship teams. Only time that he did not see at least 48 minutes of football action per game in his three year high school career was when he was sidelined part of the 1949 season with an injured knee.

DeFalco got his big chance on the varsity as a result of an injury to "Bear" Mangino in the Farrell game in 1949. Mangino was put out of commission for the year and things looked dark for the New Castle title hopes.

Things looked dark for only a few minutes, however, because not long after he got into the ball game in place of Mangino, Dante DeFalco picked up a Farrell mis-play in mid-air and raced to the one-yard line to set up New Castle's first touchdown.

Since that time Dante has been a standout on the Canes forward wall and has continued his roll of ballhawk. He has averaged nearly one recovered fumble per game for the Red and Black this season and has held down the right tackle spot in fine fashion.

Both boys weigh a little over the 200 mark and are being sought by colleges all over the nation. It is reported that Bucky has offers from colleges that he hasn't even opened up yet.

When Bill Klee, New Castle line coach, was asked who the Red Hurricanes would have to replace Tate and DeFalco on next year's team, his answer was:

"You can't replace players like them, not even with three or four men."

Carrick Vs. Schenley For Pittsburgh Title

Carrick and Schenley will battle for the Pittsburgh high school football championship Friday night at Oliver stadium.

Carrick, conqueror of New Castle in the season's opener, swept through Section 2, Pittsburgh, games without a loss, while Schenley finished unbeaten in Section 1.

Since defeating New Castle, Carrick has had little trouble in its other games, including several WPIAL teams. Schenley has also rolled over several WPIAL elevens in addition to its games.

Slot Machines To Be Broken

Court Orders Demolition

By an order of Lawrence County Court handed down Tuesday, all the slot machines which were confiscated by District Attorney Sherman K. Levine will be destroyed. Mr. Levine presented a petition asking for such an order and it was granted. In addition he asked for and received permission to turn over to the county an adding machine taken in a numbers raid, and some whiskey taken in a raid on a club in Ellwood City. The whiskey will go to the sheriff's office where it will be used medicinally for prisoners upon a physician's orders.

There are four slot machines which will feel the bite of a sledge wielded by County Detective Howard C. Kiebe. The adding machine is in good shape and will be used in the commissioners' office.

OPEN HOUSE?

It has been suggested on the hill that an Open House should be held in the new detention home before it is occupied by the Juvenile and Parole officer.

The idea seems to be a good one. The taxpayers are probably interested in seeing what they got for their $100,000 and an Open House would show them.

From the outside, the building hardly looks the price. It is in the interior that it shows up. Concrete, steel and brick, ceramic tile, copper piping, bath room facilities all of them are of the best.

TELLS ABOUT WONDERFUL RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Mrs. Katherine Merrihue, beautiful and talented advertising executive of New York City, says: "I always rely on Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets to relieve constipation. They are a purely vegetable product and are so mild, so gentle yet so very thorough in action." Note: For years Dr. F. M. Edwards, a noted Ohio doctor, recommended Olive Tablets for patients with constipation and its headaches, lack of pep and sallow skin. Olive Tablets clean clogging waste from the entire intestinal tract, giving more natural-like bowel movements—so smooth—no gripping! 15¢, 30¢, and 60¢.

Gonick Re-Elected State Officer Of Cleaners And Dyers

A. H. Gonick, proprietor of Smith's Dry Cleaning company, was re-elected vice president of the Pennsylvania Association of Cleaners and Dyers at the state convention in Philadelphia Sunday.

Mr. Gonick has served one term as vice president and was re-elected unanimously. Joseph Beck of Sunburg, Pa., was named president of the association.

One of the forward steps of the association was announced at the convention. It has installed a pilot plant at State College for the purpose of testing cleaning fluids of various kinds. Through this and experimentation work it is believed the cleaning and dyeing industry will be advanced in next few years.

Report Confession In Woman Strangling

DETROIT, Nov. 8.—(INS)—Detroit police said a 27-year-old factory worker has confessed strangling Mrs. Ethel Rosiek because she refused to end their year-long romance.

Detectives quoted Edmond L. Edwards as admitting that he and the 31-year-old housewife carried on a love affair while Mrs. Rosiek's husband, a long-distance moving van driver, was out of town.

The body of the pretty brunet victim was found yesterday in the bedroom of her Stimson avenue apartment. Police said an autopsy showed Mrs. Rosiek was strangled. Edwards told police he had been trying to "break up" with Mrs. Rosiek, a former bar waitress, and return to Tennessee for a reconciliation with his divorced wife.

Detectives quoted Edwards as saying he strangled Mrs. Rosiek during an argument over his planned trip to Tennessee.

The murdered woman's husband, Leonard, was enroute to Greenville, S. C., in his truck when the murder occurred. Rosiek rushed back to Detroit when informed by his employer that "there was an accident."

The husky truck driver nearly collapsed when told of the strangling. Rosiek told police he had known his wife four years and married her two years ago. He sobbingly informed detectives: "I trusted her to the utmost, and you'll have to show me pictures to make me feel otherwise."

NOT THIS JOSEPH SAAD

The Joseph Saad charged with operating a disorderly house at 413 E. Long avenue is not Joseph Saad of the same name who is an employee of Joseph's Super Market and resides at 506 E. Reynolds street. The News is asked to state. Neither is there any connection in the relation of these men.
